

school library, or the library of any university, college or educational institution chartered by the Commonwealth, or any branch reading room deposit station, or agency operated in connection therewith, for a period exceeding thirty (30) days after such library has given written notice to return the same.

Section 2.—Such notice may be given by personal service upon the borrower, or by the mailing of a registered letter to the borrower's address on file with said library; the notice shall recite this act, and shall contain a demand that the property be returned.

Section 3.—Any person violating the provisions of this act shall upon conviction in summary proceedings, be sentenced to pay a fine of not more than ten dollars ($10.00), to be paid over by the justice of the peace, alderman or magistrate imposing such fine to the library instituting the prosecution, and costs of prosecution. Any person in default of payment of such fine and costs shall undergo imprisonment in the county jail for a period not exceeding ten (10) days." (Signed)—GLIFFORD PINCHOT

13.—A security signer is understood to guarantee the library card issued on the faith of his promise; and he is liable thereon for all use made of the card so issued, until its return and cancellation.

Sureties are also held responsible for the amount of any fines, costs, damage or loss occasioned under these rules. Failing to make the same good within thirty days after notice in case of delinquency on the part of card holders by them guaranteed, all cards issued thereto or upon their guaranty shall be cancelled and all rights under the same forfeited. No cards may be issued in the future to any delinquent or upon his or her guaranty, until all fines and charges for which such person is responsible shall have been paid.

14.—Any person taking a book from the Library without having it charged shall be liable to prosecution, and to forfeit all right to the use of books or privileges of the Library; subject to the discretion of the Board of Directors.

15.—If a borrower's library card be lost a duplicate may be issued without charge after fifteen days from the time of giving to the Library notice of its loss.

INJURIES TO BOOKS

16.—If a book be lost or materially injured beyond further just use, it must be replaced by a new copy of the same edition, or the full published price thereof be paid to the Library within one month.

All injuries to books beyond a reasonable wear, and all losses must be made good by the person liable, to the satisfaction of the Librarian. The tearing or turning down of leaves, writing in, marking or otherwise defacing a book shall also subject the borrower to a fine, at the discretion of the Librarian, not exceeding the full value of the book injured. Before taking a book from the Library in a defaced or mutilated condition, borrowers should for their own protection report such fact to the Librarian.

IN GENERAL

17.—Readers are invited to suggest to the Librarian the title of any book not in the Library, which they may deem deserving of a place upon the shelves or desirable for use.

Borrowers who have been refused a book under the rules may appeal to the Board of Directors, and like appeal may be taken upon any matter connected with the administration of the Library.

a large bundle of these 1955 CPL "Rules and Regulations" was located by JVB on the third floor of the CPL on 09-27-1983.

Shown on page 4 (09-27-1983) is a copy of the "Bells-a-Ringing" program that I picked up at the Library today. Joan Cosgrove will doubtless be pleased when she sees herself and her bellringers on page one of the NEWS tomorrow. I shall have to make every effort to attend this concert. Joan handed me ^{yesterday} a copy of a phonograph record of bellringers performing: AGEHR Area II Handbell Festival 1983.

Shown on page 5 (09-27-1983) is a copy of a Steamtown brochure that I picked up ^{today} in the Scranton Hobby Distributor, 420 Lackawanna Avenue, Scranton, PA 18503. The hobby store is loaded with model trains and airplanes. Everywhere in Scranton there are Steamtown objects to be seen and purchased.
